JUSTICE FOR THE GRISSOM FAMILY My Kristal Ball says the Evil Gypsy is getting not merely a twisted thrill out of snapping at the hem of the QUEEN's garment, but actual FINANCIAL backing for her demented jihad. I don't know which is worse, the thought of the aggrieved bereaved being fleeced by a gypsy, who promises them relief from their pain through a ritual scourging of the scapegoated author, or the State picking up the tab for the job. Either way, we'll find out who's footing her bills, as they are just as liable as she is are for the civil damages she has caused. I know, Gypsy - or Karolina or Kristal or Karola or Scheherezade or Daystar or TrumpMarla or LizyBorden or GayLizard or GypsySpice or whoever you're masquerading as today - you're just pissed off your proposed plan to sell the confessions to the tabs backfired on you just like I told you it would when you approached me with it. So now you turn it upside down to make it look like it was me all along. OLD gypsy trick. It's so laughable when the dum-dums fall for it. I don't have to sell those confessions to anyone, you silly goose. I already had a publisher for them when they were written, and they WILL be published in the next edition of The Making of a Serial Killer. Anyone who publishes my material outside of that copyrighted venue (look up the meaning of publish - it includes sending it here and there by email) is asking for it. And that would be you, sweets - or should I spell it swets like you do? I've allowed you to go on and on and on without dignifying your malicious japes with a response, and in your continued effort to get me to recognize you, you've provided plenty of evidence, thank you. And you may be sure it WILL be used against you. I'm looking for someone to sue and you're standing right at top of my list, multiple false identities and shell-game tricks with your assets notwithstanding. And you may believe the lawyers are pushing and shoving amongst themselves to represent me so they can show their best side to the cameras. I've taken your bullshit enough. After all, this is MY INTERNET too. And I have actual contributions to make and copyrighted original material to protect. I have books and articles to write, movies to make, and websites to design. So come and get it, I'll make you HEAD LICE ITCH OF THE WEEK! But you're still not going to appear in the movie version. You're nothing but a BIT PLAYER of very little consequence to my story. You will be collapsed into a composite, if that - more likely cut altogether. This won't be your opportunity for another Dry Hustle. So get over it. You told me how you thrive on intrigue and turning this one against that one, stirring the pot with malicious lies, and always managing to manipulate any situation to produce that lucky dollar from another sucker you've managed to con into feeding your scam. You tried to reel me in and I just laughed at your transparent psychic readings and your vulgar spells. You tried to interest me in writing about YOUR fascinating life - with the wannabe lady serial killer you supposedly had on the line, who had been your lover, but now wanted to kill her male lover's other lover? And your kinky stories of meeting GJ Schaefer when you were stripping at the Fountainbleau? And the time you spent in jail in California locked up for a very MINOR offense, of course, but housed in the death row part of the women's prison, RIGHT NEXT to the Manson Girls! GEE WHIZ! How could I resist? But I did, didn't I? Didn't you have a LIFE before you discovered me? Places to go, people to meet, things to do, something of interest and value you'd like to contribute? * To those listmembers who find my comments off-topic, I apologize. It won't happen again. But this crap has been going on and on and on and ON - and nobody has complained that it was off-topic when it was them attacking me. In my opinion, Listowner should have stopped this a long time ago, or at least reminded this repeatedly offensive listmember that personal attacks are not considered desirable behavior, but since it is has gone on unchecked, then I submit that I should be allowed the same consideration as I make public this - my response to this dogged campaign of defamation, malicious lies and slander. I won't dignify this person with a personal email. We'll just turn it over to the lawyers. I have no further comment to make in this matter. So get over it. snip,snip,snip of all the other nonsense HAHAAHAHAHAHA-snort- HAHAAHAHA - sniff-. Oh Mother Mary, I have read this 3 times, since it was posted twice. You are pathetic, books to write, etc. First you need to find a place to sleep and quit sponging off of others as has been dutifully reported. My stomach hurts from laughing at you. You are such a piece of work. Lawyers standing in line? Why are you begging money all over the Internet, then? Perhaps she should sue you, you know how these rich people are, never too much money. Course you don't have any so it would be a waste of time. Oh, by the way, the Globe is based in Florida, maybe you should try The Weekly World News, they love those stories about possession and alien babies. I hear the Globe is working on an interview with Danny. Rumors run rampant, don't they? Also hear that Yvette has a handwritten confession too. Copyright that, if you can. HAHAAHAHA! Seen any black helicopters lately? Better watch those lizards too. I read that the CIA has listening devices the size of a period. Inspect them all for little black dots. Getting out of the state won't even help you now. HAHAAHAHAHAHA-snort. Please stop, both sides are hurting now. Better polish your crystal ball, there seems to be some dirt on it. You're the one that needs to be put off this list, your self-glorification is getting sickening. Maybe you could talk about something besides how great you are, then nobody would have a word to say about you. Oh yes, I forgot, if you can't be famous then infamous will do. Since this was nicely posted at the WH also. I will post this there too. JUSTICE FOR THE GRISSOM FAMILY!

It has occurred to me that most of you are wondering how this got started so, I thought I would explain. I sent the following private email to The Serial Killer Groupie Queen. She chose to respond to it, not by private email but by posting an attack on Gypsy on the serial killer listserv group, of which Gypsy is not even a member. Obviously, someone on the list emailed the attack to Gypsy, who replied here, I suppose because she knows that everyone reads the WH. You are correct, Grandma, I am not Gypsy. Although I have become a Gypsy fan. Go girl! Subj: Re: Charles Ng Date: 98-07-18 17:54:15 EDT From: Daystar202 To: elestri...@hotmail.com In a message dated 98-07-18 04:57:19 EDT, you write: << Subj: Re: Charles Ng Date: 98-07-18 04:57:19 EDT From: elestri...@hotmail.com (Kynola Bier) Reply-To: john doe <ccsu2...@earthlink.net From: john doe <ccsu2...@earthlink.net To: Kynola Bier <elestri...@hotmail.com Cc: <brunh...@interpath.com Subject: Re: Charles Ng Date: Sat, 18 Jul 1998 00:14:33 -0400 John Walsh, of America's Most Wanted has said that we have a legal system that does not answer to the victims. I believe that is right. Stand by, my minions, the Serial Killer Groupie Queen speaks thusly: Help victims by more effective apprehension of actual offenders. Help victims by doing something about the underlying causes that provoke the violence in the first place. Help victims by funding studies of real serial killers, to approach them in a manner that will actually be productive of information about what they did and why, rather than more knee-jerk scapegoating that only compounds the problem. Translation.....Fund studies of serial killers by sending me your dollars so that I can pay my bills and my lawyers. I know how to get information from them, send hundreds of love letters to them, have a cyberwedding, put up web pages glorifying them, travel the talk show circuit hawking my disgusting book, and always, always blame the victims and their families. The only reason victims' families believe that killing the offender helps them is because there is a huge vested interest at work here to channel their anguish and their grief towards a profitable enterprise: the prison business. The death machine. The prosecutors' and judges' and prison officials' private personal career paths. Translation.... The victim's families have no right to their grief and anger. CUI BONO? Always a good question to ask. WHO DOES THIS PROFIT? Or to put it another way, Follow the money. Translation.....All of these people are profiting on the blood of the victims but certainly not I. There is no relief. There is no closure. There is no healing. There is nothing that can be done to an offender that can bring the loved ones back once they are gone. It's magical thinking ritualized into a formality that only has meaning because the situation is manipulated that way to keep the whole thing going. Translation.....By magical thinking I will become famous or infamous, which does not matter. I shall attempt to manipulate all this my way for the almighty dollar. My precious serial killers are innocent, their victims should not have gotten in their way. After all my killers were abused, they are not bad people, feel sorry for them. Where is your compassion? Forget the victims and their families, they deserve nothing. YOU CAN'T KILL THEM ALL. Most of these human beings you are locking up and tormenting in your crime colleges are coming back - much more dangerous and disturbed than they were when they went in. Then you have those like our ever-popular JOE who are disturbed and enraged everytime these public spectacles are enacted. Violence feeds violence. Execution is the premeditated and PROFITABLE slaying of a human being - of which everyone who supports that regime is guilty, as well as everyone else who is aware of it - not just those pumping it up - but even those who just go along with it. GUILTY. Translation... Just have to bring JOE into this discussion, I know he will support me against all you meanies, after all I got those words from him. Execution makes us killers too. I know, I'm a killer - and so are you. It's so macho, all the killing and the executing. There's just no big throbbing phallic symbol projected behind things like assistance for young unwed mothers and the toddler-sized killers they are breeding. Where is the interest in giving these kids something to live for instead of just coming at them with bigger & badder bludgeons? What about programs to help these enraged and aroused youths learn to express themselves and work together - things they might like to do, like theater or music or sports or building a place to be? What about literacy? What about bringing journalism to the streets and empowering the inarticulate to communicate instead of having to resort to violence just to get through to somebody - to know that they are alive - to shake off the numbness - break the boredom - act out the myths they see reiterated hundreds of times every day? What about alternative sentencing options to offer the juvenile or first offender ways to build a life out of nothing? Translation.... See, I told you it is all your fault, all of Society's fault. There is no such thing as being responsible for your own actions. Never mind that 99% of abused and/or underprivileged children never become killers. We won't think about that. But there is no money to be made there, not compared to what you can rake in with a good healthy program of prison corruption. And there's just no hard-on behind prenatal nutrition, or support for young parents, help with the kids, somewhere for kids to turn, somewhere to have fun with other kids, someone to look up to, someone to understand and help them learn to cope with the ever-increasing stresses of this whacked-out, delusional, mind-controlled society that manufacturers serial killers as prolifically as it does any other product. Translation.... All these bad,bad prison officials are corrupt, they cut up my sweetie's mail. Oh, never mind that millions of dollars have been spent on just such programs, my killers can not deal with stress, pity them. Ever hear of Murder Victims Families for Reconciliation? No? Wonder why that is? Could it be not much money to be made for what their program promotes, hm? not enough careers to be hyped, not enough glory hogs like John Walsh literally bathing in their children's blood... Translation...I can bathe in the blood of the victims for the almighty dollar but, God forbid that any one of any victims families ever become recognized and listened to by the general public. Buy my book. Something you do not realize, having obviously bought into the program with a vengeance - a significant number of the journalists and law enforcement officers who have been very close to the Walsh case REMAIN suspicious of the role Walsh played in his own son's murder. He and Reva were living way beyond their means, I mean dramatically so, and Reva was out on one of her many assignations of which John was well aware, when the boy disappeared. No need for me to go on and on, with the phalanx of lawyers backing Walsh up as a major cash-cow for FOX. Just one little haunting tidbit for you to gnaw on: that little boy's head was identified by dental records. Where did those records come from? Were they obtained through law enforcement channels with a proper chain of custody? No sir, I'm afraid not. They happened to have been furnished by John Walsh personally. Translation,,,,, It's the fault of the parents of the victims, of course. Otis Toole told me so. Oh, by the way, he's dead, so I can put whatever words in his mouth that I wish to. Give me a break with your John Walsh adulation. Next you'll want to urge us all to vote for Marc Klaas. He's off and running too, I understand, though he doesn't have near the packaging John Walsh does. Still, he and these other professional victims popping up do indicate a definite trend. Playing to the cheap seats has always been the most obvious path.<< Translation....I keep telling you it's the fault of the victim's families. My cheap Group Sex Ballet is, of course, not a cheap seat, it is ART. Funny thing about the CULTS behind both those murders - Hand of Death, Temple of Set. Did you realize that Marc Klaas was a guard at Folsom Prison at the same time Richard Allen Davis, known by his own family to be a satanist, was imprisoned there? Did you realize Marc's dad Joe Klaas had endorsed a book exposing satanic crime 9 months before the girl disappeared? Are you aware that the journalist investigating the connection has also subsequently disappeared? Sources please. And not your web site, or the words of one of your serial killer pets. I hear one of the cults is after you, tired of your blaming everything on them. I wonder if you are aware of the other pronunciation of the word CULT? That would be CORRUPTION. You can't have one without the other.
